ELLIJAY - The Union County Recreation Department's 12&U boys basketball team participated in the State Tournament in Gilmer County over the weekend.

Action got underway Friday night at Gilmer High School when the Panthers fell to the host Bobcats. Union County returned to the court on Saturday morning, where they came up short against Manchester.

The Union County 12U girls basketball team was also in action over the weekend, finishing second in Rabun County. Additional details on the 12&U girls basketball tournament will be available in next week's edition of the North Georgia News.

Senior Center partners with Primary School

The Union County Senior Center have lent their artistic abilities to the Union County Primary School's upcoming Camp-Learn-A-Lot.

This Thursday, March 7, the UCPS will host Camp-Learn-A-Lot, a night of reading, writing and math activities for the entire family.

Last month, volunteers at the senior center donated their time and skills to paint story stones that will be used by the second grade students at this week's camp.

"They are very artistic and they have done a great job painting story stones that will be used as one of our second grade rotations," Union County Schools Family Engagement Coordinator Becky Dyer said. "We are very thankful for Kathy Hill and all of the hard work by the Union County Senior Center to help

Story Stones painted at the Union County Senior Center us get ready for this fun-filled Thursday evening from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. at the Union County Primary School. Everyone is welcome to attend Camp Learn-A-Lot this
