Local company teams with 'Southern Style Model' on signature knives

Brittney Leigh Glaze (aka Southern Style Model) is no stranger to the North Georgia Mountains and Union County.

The 25 year old model's grandmother Frances Moon is a resident of Blairsville, where she has spent a lot of time fishing on Lake Nottely.

"I love how peaceful it is up there," she said. "And my favorite memory would be fishing with my Granny, Frances Moon and Pawpaw, Ken Moon."

Brittney Leigh has graced the cover of numerous magazines including Maxim in May's Maxim Salutes the Military, Coast Guard Collectible Cover.

She is soon to be the host of a new hunting show titled Destination Whitetail on the Sportsman Channel. However one of her most recent endeavors brings her back to the North Georgia Mountains where she is teaming with Anglesey, a Hiwassee company on her own signature knife series.

After she was impressed with the Hiwassee company's knives on a hog hunt a few months back, and after discussion and trials she decided to team with Anglesey on two knives - a women's version and a men's version.

"Brittney was introduced to the Rival Hunter knife when Brittney Leigh first tried out Anglesey's Rival Knife series on a hog hunt and immediately loved the knife, leading to her own knives.

a friend of ours gave her the Hunter version (Black cerakoted blade, black grips with orange bolts and claw) to use on a hog hunt a few months ago," Anglesey's Russ Owens said. The women's version

"Huntress." The men's version is a Desert Tan cerakoted blade, Desert Tan grips with OD green bolts, OD green claw (butt), and her signature engraved in OD green, with "Hunter". The

"Hunter" comes with a Desert Tan sheath, also engraved with her signature and "Hunter." "If you're looking for a well rounded American-made hunting knife, you should check out my Anglesey signature series knives," Brittney said. "The hunter and huntress knives are perfect to carry with you while hunting, they are very light weight and pretty much indestructible. I love mine, I take it with me everywhere."

Brittney also touched on the importance of kids being introduced to the outdoors and getting them away from video games and computers.

"I think it's important for kids to get outside and be in nature," she said. "It brings you back to the simple things in life, and to me, it gives me time to find myself and be thankful for all God has made for us. I'm sure if you ask kids today if they've ever skipped a rock, or caught a frog, or played in the mud, not many will say yes and that makes me sad. My best memories in life are having fun outside doing something in nature."

Blue Ridge Mountain Rugby Club takes third in Columbus tournament

The Blue Ridge Mountain Rugby Club picked up its first ever Top three finish last month in Columbus.

On Saturday, June 21st, Blue Ridge Mountain Rugby Football Club traveled to Columbus GA to play in the longest running 7's tournament in GA (31 years).

Due to varying circumstances BRMRFC traveled lightly with only seven players making the trip.

The team struggled through and managed to take third place overall and picked up the club's first ever piece of hardware to bring back to the mountains.

Jason Hoffman said, "It is a huge accomplishment for the club to gain our first medal for placing third and knowing we were only one score away from runner-up. The greatest part may have been watching the big man, Jeremy King, put a move on his opponent and rumble in 25 meters for the score. We really pulled together as a team and this is just the beginning for the club."

BRMRFC was one of 10 teams competing, with teams coming from Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, and Alabama. BRMRFC traveled to Atlanta to play a 15's tourney on June 28 and back to Atlanta for Hotlanta 7's tournament on July 12th.

The club has other tournament possibilities going forward in July and is trying to nail down the date to host a home tournament in August. BRMRFC is always welcoming new players to the club.

There is a position for all sizes and skill levels. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY. Practices held in Blairsville and Blue Ridge.

Look us up on Facebook or email for more information at brmrfclub@gmail.com.

UC Recreation Department's 9U Baseball All-Star Team

The Union County Recreation Department's 9U baseball all-star team players, coaches, and parents would like to take this opportunity to express our utmost gratitude to our supporters and our sponsors for helping make this year's all-star experience a very memorable and productive season.

The coaches (Ricky Tanner, Joe Jordan, & Jeff Tanner) took their team to the Ralph Diaz Memorial Tournament in Blue Ridge on Saturday, June 14th, where they triumphantly brought home the first place trophy. Then starting Friday, June 20th they began their all-star quest during the District 6 Dizzie Dean All-Star Tournament also held at Blue Ridge City Park. The team and coaches pulled together to work and play their way through thrilling games, proudly bringing home the second place trophy and earning a chance as the second place team entry for District 6 to play in the State Tournament held in Canton starting Friday, July 4th.

This would not have been possible without all the support of our coaches, our parents and other supporters, and most of all our wonderful sponsors - Appalachian Home Healthcare, Gooch Trucking, Mountain View Funeral Home, Shook Automotive, Safeguard Lock & Vault, Grinds & Glazes, Tanner's Towing, Pat's Hallmark, Jay's Medical Equipment, Carter Investments, Lamar Paris, El Manzanillo Mexican Restaurant, Chapman & Chapman, Jackson Insurance, The New

You, Advanced Disposal and FoodLand.

It's like the late, great pitcher Bob Feller once said; "Every day is a new opportunity. You can build on yesterday's success or put its failures behind and start over again. That's the way life is, with a new game every day, and that's the way baseball is."

We appreciate this special opportunity you have afforded this deserving young team, as your contributions and support have helped form the foundation of positive lifelong lessons and memories, as well as helped perpetuate the love of one of America's greatest sports and past times. We the coaches, the players, and the parents of this team cannot thank you enough.

Good luck at State boys!
